

Atty. Jaime T. de Veyra

Atty. Jaime de Veyra, hails from Tanauan, Leyte and is married with two children. After a short stint in the private practice of law, he joined the government sector in 1998 as Corporate Attorney and eventually became the Corporate Secretary of the then Public Estates Authority (now PRA).

In 2003, he joined the Philippine Mining Development Corporation and served in various capacities as Chief Legal Counsel, Corporate Secretary, CEO and is presently its Vice President. He previously worked also, on a part time basis, with the Career Executive Service Board (CESB) and the Philippine Aerospace Development Corporation (PADC) and served as consultant to other private corporations.

Aside from his AB Economics and LLB degrees from San Beda College, he also has an MBA from Ateneo and an MNSA degree from the National Defense College of the Philippines (NDCP).